#3 Scotch N Sirloin (Onondaga County)

Classy old-school "Mad Men" themed restaurant. Only it was in operation when the "Mad Men" of the TV show were actually operating in real time. Comforting to know this place still exists.

I remember going there with my parents for celebrations in the early 1970s. Big fireplace, fancy cocktails with names like Brandy Alexander, Pink Lady and Harvey Wallbanger, and meat. Lots of thick, juicy, plate-filling meat. Now, as an adult, I still go back to the Scotch and Sirloin and except for the prices it is easy to transport my way back to those days of watching my parents have fun here with their friends, and wishing I would hurry up and become an adult. A favorite old school restaurant for many of my generation.

Scotch and Sirloin 3687 Erie Blvd, E. Syracuse, NY

Website: https://www.scotchnsirloin.com/

Read the full article by Chuck D'Imperio on syracuse.com at https://www.syracuse.com/expo/life-and-culture/g66l-2019/01/d2098f06dde24/the-15-greatest-oldschool-restaurants-in-upstate-new-york-ranked.html